It never rains but what it pours. A. E. Gish of Bishop and Cal Brougher of this place both sent to this office a nice water melon. Many thanks gentlemen.
The Brougher Bros. are again sinking on their lease. They are also stopping. They can keep every freight team on the road supplied with ore from their lease.
Manager O. E. Turner of the Tonopah Company has gone to San Francisco. He has been quite sick the past week. His family will accompany him on his return.
The John R. Weeks Library of Tonopah has been arranged in the office of Dr. Hudgens. This is a free library for our people and those desiring books to read can procure them by calling on Dr. Hudgens.

Labor Day a Success.

As early as 6 o'clock last Monday morning—Labor Day—all was activity in Tonopah. This was the first attempt of the local miners' union here to entertain their friends and members. That they did themselves proud is the universal verdict.
At 10 o'clock the members formed in line in front of their hall and under the guidance of Grand Marshal Robert Hurley marched through the principle streets of the town and returning to their hall where the literary exercises were held.
The Rev. Arthur Hicks rendered a very impressive prayer for the welfare of the laborer, was followed by the orator Mr. Clay Peters, who delivered a very forcible and logical address, dwelling on the benefits to be derived from labor and its association with capital. The speaker was frequently applauded during his delivery. Our space will not permit of the publishing of the oration although we would like to give it to our readers.
The base ball game was won by the Heavy Weights, score 5 to 3.
In the double handed drilling contest Hurley and Salesbury carried off first honors drilling 35 15-16 inches. Osborn and Wearing taking second money with 31 1/2 inches. Kendall and McAuliffe drilling 27 1/2 inches.
In the single handed contest Hurley won, 19 1/2 inches; Salesbury 19 1/2; Schmidt, 11 1/2.
The horse racing was eagerly contested, Oddie's horse, Holy Terror, winning over Marsh's gray Charger. Mr. Oddie says he believes his horse is a world beater, as his horse also won the handicap race.
Emmet Johnson took first money and A. J. Crocker and Howard tied for second in the foot race.
In the boy's race Master Stevens was first over the tape with Master Gilbert a close second.
The dance in the evening was largely attended and was the event of the season in Tonopah, it was a social success. In the prize waltz for ladies, Mrs. James McQuillian was awarded first prize for the most graceful lady waltzer, and Mrs. W. Ferguson, of Delamar, was given the second prize as the next best lady waltzer.
There was not an accident and but few intoxicated persons during the day. Everybody has words of praise for the Tonopah Miners' Union in the able manner they conducted their celebration.
Church Notes.
Last Sabbath afternoon the sabbath school was organized and the following officers elected. Superintendent, Mrs. D. Ramsey; Assistant Superintendent, Miss Stimler; Secretary, Miss Marsh; Treasurer, Mrs. J. Kendall. Until further notice the school will meet every Sunday at 2:30 P. M. at the home of Mrs. Ramsey.
Last Sunday evening an open air service was held near the post office. The ladies turned out in force and their excellent singing was enjoyed by all.
Through the kindness of Mrs. J. L. Butler, Mr. Cal Brougher and Mr. A. H. Gayhart a lot has been secured upon which to build a manse for the pastor. The two lots thus donated give the Presbyterian church and manse one of the most pleasant sites on the high ground on St. Patrick street.
Two New Shafts.
Dickson, Ellis & Ellis of Salt Lake have let a contract to Wm. Sinclair and Doc O'Toole to sink two shafts on the Wandering Boy and Stone Cabin claims of 150 feet each. At 150 feet this will cross cut the ledges and if they prove rich at this depth it will be the means of selling a number of mines here. The croppings are very rich and all predict a rich find at this depth when cross cutting will commence.

Edwards & Cutting are agents for the Imperial Automatic Acetylene Gas Generator. Kendall & Carey have had one of these generators put in their place of business. The house is now well lighted.
Elmer Dunlap and Frank Higgs returned from their California outing Tuesday. Elmer resembles a pugilist and Frank Higgs would be taken for a San Francisco supervisor, so healthy have both grown.
Jerry Ahearn, of Delamar, has purchased the stock of dry goods and gents clothing of M. Karsky and has moved the same into the brown tent opposite the Kentucky Liquor Store. Mr. Ahearn is known as "Honest Jerry" and his friends are legion.
Mrs. Labeau, one of the pioneer women of this State, died in Ellsworth, Nye county, Monday morning at 1 o'clock of hemorrhage of the lungs. Deceased leaves a husband, two sons, a daughter, and a multitude of friends to mourn her loss—Reveille.
Death of D. Rosenthal.
In San Francisco on Sunday last Davis Rosenthal, a pioneer of Hawthorne, and the proprietor of the Lake View Hotel, at that place, died after a short illness. The deceased was a man who commanded the respect of all, he was honest and upright in all his dealings, and his demise will forever be mourned by his acquaintances and family. The numerous friends in Tonopah of the noble man who has passed from their view forever, extend their heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing family.
A 50c bottle of Trib liniment in the house prevents much suffering, saves much time and some money

And Still We Boom.

Tuesdays mail brought returns from Selby to the aggregate amount of $34,416 77. This amount is net after deduction of railroad freight and treatment charges.
The highest return in this lot was on four tons of selected ore shipped by the company which yielded 775 ozs in silver and 12 ozs in gold or a total value of $705 per ton. This shipment of four tons yielded a net return of $1,941 52.
Other high returns were as follows: From Lease No. 6 a lot of five tons gave a return of 462 ozs in silver and 5.90 ozs in gold per ton. Another shipment of four tons from the same lease gave a return of 378 ozs in silver and 4.75 ozs in gold per ton.
A shipment of two tons from lease No. 27 gave a return of 100 ozs in silver and 24.70 ozs in gold per ton. This ore was from what is known as the "gold streak."
The foregoing are of course exceptional returns from small shipments. The average value per ton on all returns received is about $196 per ton. The lowest return was one which gave 100 ozs in silver and 1.10 ozs in gold or a total value of about $80 per ton.
Several of the most fortunate individual leasers are reaping the rewards of their good luck in checks for big amounts. One lease received $7,918 by Tuesdays mail. Another lease received returns to the amount of $6,885 at the same time.
Wednesday was a record breaker in the amount of ore shipped from the camp in one day. On that day 63 tons left the camp for Sodaville by freight wagons. The value of this 63 tons at a moderate estimate is $10,000 not a bad days work, and a strong index of the future.
Drilling Match for $250.
Robert Hurley and Jack Salesbury have wagered $250 with Zeb Kendall and Wm. McAuliffe, all the money is up, that they will out drill them in a 15 minute double handed drilling contest, regulation steel, national rules. The match will take place one week from next Tuesday. Considerable money will change hands on the result.
Schmidt Wins.
Carl Schmidt wagered $50 that he could drill 15 inches in 15 minutes, single handed. He proved that he could Wednesday evening. After drilling the allotted time his work measured up 18 1/2 inches.
